2023 CNZ LADIES RANK AFTER BOTH ISLANDS PLAYED (Will change again after Nationals in July)

NOTE FOR THESE RANKINGS AFTER BOTH ISLANDS PLAYED 2023

South Island

There were 17 new players that played this year from the South Island

The South Island Ladies was played with a different format. Instead of taking through half the field to the Main Event, which would have been 45. They took through 60, leaving 30 to the Trophy Event. The ramifications on the rankings are as follows. 15 players who would have gone to the Trophy with their points from section play did in fact gain an extra 14 points at least. One in fact who went ahead and got an extra 40 something points. You may say well she deserved it but she took out some players that would have gone into that tournament with an understanding of how the format would be. I WANT TO MAKE IT CLEAR I DO NOT CARE WHAT FORMAT IS PLAYED. I do care that things are fair so that everyone is playing on an even playing field. Unless every tournament is playing the same format then things are not even and the ranking system is not true. I am 100% sure that the decision to change the format was in the thinking a benefit to the players BUT every change made has a ripple on effect. Come the Ladies Nationals there are now some South Island players who could be playing the wrong people. Remember this is a ranking tournament. May I suggest the people get together and decide which format you are wanting and get it voted on. This is not just for the Ladies but the Open as well.

North Island

There were 11 new players that played this year for the North Island

Apologies to the North Island Players. There were not any Club names against players entries, therefore I was not able to update these. If you played for a different club then please let me know so that I can update to the correct Club. Also this means the 11 new players I was unable to put your Club name up. Contact me to have this rectified. Either at kledwards@snap.net.nz, karen.lee.edwards@gmail.com or CELL 022-555-3326

If you played for both Islands then only your best result was entered. To ensure no unfair advantage.

If you have slipped off the ranking list due to not playing for some years and have a zero ranking. Your name will not appear on this published version. It takes up a few pages.
